Huron County Basket Donation Raffle items from Reservoir Park Recreation Building rental:

Councilwoman Beverly stated that The Huron County Commissioners asked us to do three baskets for the fair Semi-quincentennial giveaway. We talked to different merchants along with Michelle, we've got the spa in town, Deb McKinney, Painted Cowgirl, trying to get Cowgirl Coffee, Shep's Scoops, Mickey Mart & Adam's Small Engines. We're asking everyone to do three items so that there is one item in each basket.

We need to come up with an amount that we can do three certificates of for the drawing that will be at the Huron County Commissioners meeting that follows the fair. If we do certificates for $ 500.00, then the total will be $ 1,500.00. Councilman Hunter said its good exposure for our new building with the County Commissioners and also drawing people from around the county to our location. Mayor Twaddle suggested maybe a percentage off since we have two dollar amounts for the rooms in the Recreation Center, something like 25% as an idea. Councilwoman Phillips suggested that we get a community event card listing every event for the year, and that needs to be put together right now, maybe partner with GIG and get items on there like the car show and the Party for the Park, we need to get the word out there early.

Lynne Phillips made a motion to give three $ 500.00 off the Reservoir Park Community Building rental in the years 2027 or 2028 gift certificates for the Huron County Commissioners baskets. Jason Hunter 2nd, 5 ayes.
